

Local use of land change & zoning	England and Westminster	Between 2002 and 2010 various planning policies were implemented. The 2002 Local Plan set out a vision for the future of the city and the surrounding area. It was the first time that a local plan had been produced in London since the 1970s. The plan was a landmark document as it was the first time that a local plan had been produced in London since the 1970s. The plan was a landmark document as it was the first time that a local plan had been produced in London since the 1970s.				Support residential and commercial development	High level and other high level residential development of 100,000 units. The plan also includes a target for 100,000 units of high level residential development. The plan also includes a target for 100,000 units of high level residential development.	Support green spaces	Support green spaces and green infrastructure. The plan also includes a target for 100,000 units of high level residential development. The plan also includes a target for 100,000 units of high level residential development.	Work with partners to enhance green spaces and green infrastructure. The plan also includes a target for 100,000 units of high level residential development. The plan also includes a target for 100,000 units of high level residential development.	Support green spaces and green infrastructure. The plan also includes a target for 100,000 units of high level residential development. The plan also includes a target for 100,000 units of high level residential development.
General						Support high level residential development and support for other development.	High level and other high level residential development of 100,000 units. The plan also includes a target for 100,000 units of high level residential development. The plan also includes a target for 100,000 units of high level residential development.
Other	Private Equity					Support high level residential development and support for other development.	High level and other high level residential development of 100,000 units. The plan also includes a target for 100,000 units of high level residential development. The plan also includes a target for 100,000 units of high level residential development.				