Delegated Power

Council Constitution

Part 3 – Responsibilities for Council Functions

Section 2 – Functions Delegated to Cabinet Members and Officers – Scheme of Delegation

Decision Taken

To list the Terrington St John Methodist Church as an Asset of Community Value (ACV) according to (s.88(1)(a) Localism Act 2011) to further the well-being or social interests of the local community.

Reasons for the Decision

Applicable Law

Localism Act 2011 sections 97 to 108 and the Assets of Community Value (England) Regulations 2012.

Section 88 – an ACV is land in west Norfolk that the borough council consider to have community value on the basis that:

- S.88(1)(a) the primary current use of the land furthers the social well-being or social interests of the local community
- S.88 (1)(b) it is realistic to think that the land can continue to be used in a way that will further the social well-being or social interests of the local community
- S89 it must be a community nomination – land in the local area and by a local group (as defined in article 5)

Nomination from the Parish

- The Parish are a local group and meet the article 5 criteria
- Article 6 – the nomination contains a plan and sufficient information to identify the owners of the property. The property is local.
- Evidence for concluding that the land is of community value – the property is available to the whole community and available for hire by the whole community for groups and clubs.

The property has been used occasionally or regularly for:

The Church of England Community

The school

Exercise Group

Rainbows

Brownies

Childrens birthdays, christenings, wakes

BCKLWN voting

Women's circle
Parish Council
The Golden Girls club
Terrington St John Village Hall Committee

The evidence provided is consistent with a history of community use of the property and the recommendation was to grant the ACV status.

Options Considered

A voluntary or community body that wishes to nominate land to be listed as an ACV must ensure that its nomination includes the following:

- A description of the nominated land including its proposed boundaries
- A statement of all the information considered in reaching the decision to nominate, including the names of any current occupants and the names and addresses of all those holding a freehold or leasehold estate in the land
- The reasons for the conclusion that the land is of community value
- Evidence that the voluntary or community body is eligible to make a community nomination.

The Terrington St John Parish council have met the requirements for the listing of the village hall as an ACV, and a decision has been taken to list according to legal advice obtained.
