REVIEW OF PROPORTIONALITY

It is the duty of the Council to review annually the entitlement of political groups to seats on committees in line with the proportionality rules set out in the Local Government and Housing Act 1989. The rules allow adjustments to be made to make whole numbers of seats and, once the Council has determined how adjustments should be made, appointments are made to committees on that basis.

Following the election of Councillor Alexandra Ware to the Gaywood Clock Ward vacancy following the death of Councillor John Collop an increase to the Labour Group by 1 seat giving them 14 seats.

RECOMMENDED: That proportionality be amended by the change of seats as follows:

That the Conservative Group lose 1 seat from the Licensing and Appeals Board to the Labour Group

The Group of Independents lose 1 seat from the Licensing Committee to the Labour Group

1 Background

The rules around proportionality are as set out below:

- (1) No political group can have all the places on a committee (the exception is the Cabinet).
- (2) A group having an overall majority on the Council is entitled to a majority of seats on each committee.
- (3) The aggregate number of seats across all committees is allocated in accordance with each group's entitlement.
- (4) The number of seats on each committee is allocated in accordance with each group's entitlement.

2 Proportionality Change

Following a change in Group membership across the Council it has required the proportionality to be reviewed.

The change is that following the election of Councillor Alexandra Ware as a Labour Councillor to the Gaywood Clock Vacancy following the death of Councillor John Collop.

This means that the group numbers are currently 29 Conservative, 14 Independent, 9 Labour. The 3 Independent Members are not in a group and are not taken into account in the proportionality calculations, but any Group may offer seat/s to those independents should they wish.

3 Amended level of Seats Allocated

To take into account the amended proportionality, Council is invited to approve the changes as follows:

- 1) That the Conservative Group lose 1 seat from the Licensing and Appeals Board to the Labour Group
- 2) The Group of Independents lose 1 seat from the Licensing Committee to the Labour Group
